Issue:

November 2013

Greetings!

Time spent with our loved ones - family, old friends and new alike - that is our most valuable gift of all. And so, let us celebrate each lovingly prepared meal, every toast and all cherished moments with open hearts and the greatest good cheer. And while we celebrate these blessings, perhaps we can resolve to bring as much kindness and as many good deeds forth as we know how.

My Warmest Wishes,
RL

To accentuate your good times...

- I have extended special prices on gift sets through year's end.
- Exciting new products include Pear Ginger Jam, Cranberry Orange Jam, Meyer Lemon-Lime Marmalade (all originally created for the InterContinental Hotels in San Francisco and now at last available to you).
- A new Fruitcake creation I am very proud of that is already in limited supply... Four Orange Chocolate Fruitcake. I have also brought back a true seasonal favorite: Cranberry-Raspberry Relish.
- Included in this newsletter and on my site is the debut of a very special recipe for a show-stopping dessert: Buche de Noel. The chocolate flames rising up from this yule log will delight all at your table!

Links and images below cover products, recipes & the latest focus on more of my retail partners who bring the magic of specialty / artisan foods into your neighborhoods, cupboards & pantries...
